To all researching Berry Brown of Greenup Ky. I found a Cherokee Citizenship Application for him...

I have an Isham Brown, in my Brown line,.. b. about 1794, who came from the Smyth co.Va. in late 1840's to Greenup/Boyd co. Ky. Isham also had lived in the Wythe/Montgomery co., Va. area is the 1820 and 30's,and there are rumors of Cherokee Indian that may have came down the Brown line. Isham Srs.,son, John Brown was born about 1820, Smyth co.,Va. He married a Matilda Jane Carter. So the Cherokee could have came down her side, if not John Brown's father, Isham Brown. My John Brown remarried to an Amanda Rucker in Boyd co.,Ky after 1870. My John Brown passed away about 1894, Boyd co.,Ky.

I dont think my John or Isham Brown Sr. tie into Berry Brown, but if anyone knows different, please let me know!

Isham is burried in the Brown cemetary , Boyd co., Ky., and lived in the Catlettsburg area. Isham and wife Christina (Hounshell)Brown had several children who also liked in the Boyd Ky area...if any connection would love to know. There children confirmed: John, Isham Jr., Lavisa (Brown)Wilcox, Henry, other possible children: James (may have married a Plymore?) , Joseph, Wesley, and Hiram, Richard?, William?.

Here is the information on the Berry Brown Cherokee Indian application to all interested:

To all researching Berry Brown of Greenup Ky. I found a Cpt obee Chronicle topic also for him...

I have an Ishum Brown in my Brown line... b. about 1794...who came from the Ky/Va area to Ohio 1810's to Greenup Co. Ky. Ishum also had land in the Ky/Va/Kentucky co.. Va area in the 1820 and 30's and there were records in Cumberland when that may have come down the Brown line taking Ky. too. John Brown was born about 1820 Ky/Va co.Va. He married a Matilda Jane Carter. To the Cherokee could he have come down for said. Red John Brown's father, Ishum Brown. My John Brown was married to an unnamed Lodge in Boyd co.Ky after 1870. My John Brown passed away about 1894 Boyd co.Ky.

I dont think my John or Ishum Brown is the John Berry Brown, but it may one have a different spelling for me here!

Ishum is born in the Greenup county , Boyd co., Ky. and lived in the Cattlesburg area, his son and wife (Jordan (Hounshell)Brown had moved child as who also lived in the Boyd Ky area...if my connection could have to here. There child as confirmed John, Ishum B., Laura (Jordan)Nelson, Henry other possible children. Jane(may be married a Flynn or)...Joseph, Wesley, and Ishum, Richard Wilson?

Here is the information on the Berry Brown Cherokee Indian application for all interested.

Berry's Heritage

Posted 21 Jan 2013 by Terry_Bradley24

Per Jennifer Duncan's family tree on RootsWeb, Berry Brown was listed in 1850 and 1860 census lists as a "mulatto"; Teresa Clarkson alternatively reports that he was a full-blooded Cherokee. Which is true? Unfortunately, without further evidence, we do not know. Those who pursue family history are well aware that census takers often made their own judgment about heritage based upon appearance, or would take the word of a neighbor who professed to know the family well. Similiarly, we know that stories passed down through families, while often romantic and imaginative, are not always accurate. Was Berry Brown a person of African-American descent, Native American descent, or merely what my late father-in-law would have called "swarthy"? Additional note, added October 23, 2008: According to Ann S. Bernard's research, the enlistment roll from Berry's (very short) service in the War of 1812 lists him as a full-blooded Cherokee.

He was acquainted with their father Berry Brown for about 40 years, and he showed strong indication of Indian blood., dated 29th day of July, 1893.

And Joseph A. Browns great grandfather to be Dale Brown.
William Brown appears on the application to be the son of Dale Brown, and the father of Berry Brown.

This may not be the whole application. The application also appears to be #2357.

of course these next two are the very special ones to us, I think that's why he talked more about them, so I'm going to add a few things here.

(3) Peggy- There were several colorful details Arther told about her, but I won't try to repeat it all. You remember most of them, About her horses, etc.
Bub said she lived on a farm and raised horsed and sheep. He said she wouldn't leave the farm after she got older. He said she lived to be 98 years old. She was making soap in a kettle for Emma when she caught afire and died, (this is similar to what you'd heard.)

(4) Polly- She was a midwife and went all over the country, horseback, delivering babies. She never lost a case. He remembered that she had delivered Edna Craycraft, Polk Craycraft's daughter. he said she came over to Ohio to deliver the baby. Polk wanted her to stay with them awhile. She said, "No, I have to get back across the pond." (That's what she called the river.) Polly smoked a pipe. She use to go to her Brother John's house and the children would fight over who would get to light her pipe. (Bub remambered this)

Arther said Joshua Robbins died a natural death. I don't know if he remembers hearing this or if he just assumed as much. he was born in the 1880's, Joshua would have been dead by that time, or so we thought.

Arther said Jenny use to dance and sing a lot. (I added this because I forgot to mention it over on the other page.) I still don't know if Jane and Jenny were the same one or not. But if there sure enough was an "Aunt Jane Hamilton" it seems they were two different people.

Arther's Uncle Sam Montgomery married Katie Sizemore. He said Fox Sizemore had a son, "An" or "Anz" who was shot through the neck when the war out at Moorehead took place. After he healed, they left the country and was never heard from again. He said tey were "Great, Tall, Men"
This gave me a chance to ask if he ever heard of the Robbins' being in that feud, he said "no"

According to Arther (Bub) Brown: this is our great great grandfather

Berry Brown was the earliest known member of our family. Berry was half Cherokee Indian, his Mother was Full-blooded Cherokkee. Berry Brown married an Indian lady (at least 3/4 Cherokee, maybe full- blooded, also) they came from the Smokey Mnts. into Eastern Ky.

Page 2

Berry fought in the "Indian War" Under General Jackson (must have been War of 1812)* Told of having regretted killing an Indian after a battle was over, which was fought at a river, someplace. But the Indian would have killed him if he hadn't shot first. Berry was already living in Eastern Kentucky at the time the war took place.

Berry Browns children, the ones remembered by Arther:

1. Peggy- The oldest daughter, maybe oldest child. (b. ca 1810 ) She was married to James Brown, maybe a cousin. He went to Missouri and died there. Peggy's children were Jeff and Martha. (according to concus records there were others.)

2. Dave- The oldest son. He was a Baptist Preacher in Magoffin County. He went to Texas in a wagon train, with his family. He had sons, Creed-Ann(Who was also a Baptist Preacher.) and HeadlossHE (who was a real Estate agent and was killed at Mt. Sterling, Ky) two more sons were Nelse (Nelson ?) and Thurman, who both went to Texas with the family.

3. JOE- He was a fighter. He held the championship of Greenup County at one time. He whipped John Book Bush of Magoffin County to bring the championship to Greenup Co. He whipped Josh Robbins one time and almost broke his neck. Joe had many children, one of them was Fiddlin George Brown.

4. Polly-Married Josh Robbins, and had children: Shylow, Emory, Alf, Jim, John, &Emma, who married Joff Brown. (there was also others whom he didn't name.)

5. Rhoda- Married Hosey Howell, who was a home guard with John Brown in the Cival War.

6. John - Married Nancy Montgomery and had fifteen children, including Arther. John was also a Home Guard in the Cival War. They were assigned to protect the homes and people from guerillas, who were men that went around robbing and killing people.

Great grandfather

7. Jenny- Married Joe Bohannin (the way it was pronounced) and he turned out to be a guerilla. John Brown and "Ho" Howell almost captured him, but he got away and was never heard from. (Arther called her "Aunt Jenny Prater" so maybe she remarried)

8. Betsy - *Didn't mention anything about her except that she was his Dad's sister.

9. Jim Brown - One of his children was Lewis Brown (supposedly a full blooded Cherokee, so his decendents say, ???)

*This means I added something in my own words.)
